BoodaLu (Frequently Asked Questions)

Why BoodaLu: Named after two dogs the previous owners Michael Bayles and Kathy Goltz-Bayles rescued years ago — Booda and Lulu. They were litter-mates and both Border Collie/Lab mixes.

Building Age / History: Building was completed in 1872; it was primarily a warehouse over the years. It housed a restaurant, “Jorge the Crooks”, before the Bayles’ purchased it. The building has undergone extensive structural and cosmetic renovations.

Meat Suppliers: All from central Iowa farms and ranches.

How long in business: BoodaLu was opened for business on June 28, 2013.

What’s Upstairs: The upstairs is our private event space and it is called the Muddy Dog Room—see boodalu.com for details.

Goal: Create a “casual yet classy” restaurant that provides an exceptional dining experience by having great service and excellent food within a clean and inviting space.
